

Tulips

across the harvest whitely peer empty of surprise death's faultless eyes

(whose hand my folded soul shall know while on faint hills do frailly go The peaceful terrors of the snow, and before your dead face which sleeps, a dream shall pass) and these my days their sounds and flowers Fall in a pride of petaled hours, like flowers at the feet of mowers whose bodies strong with love through meadows hugely move.

yet what am i that such and such mysteries very simply touch me, whose heart-wholeness overmuch Expects of your hair pale, a terror musical?

while in an earthless hour my fond soul seriously yearns beyond this fern of sunset frond on frond opening in a rare Slowness of gloried air . . .
